Foreword

PRIDE AND PLEASANT MEMORIES GO INTO THESE PAGES, EACH OF WHICH
IS A SYMBOL OF HEARTY COOPERA-TION AND A MARKER OF HAPPY
DAYS SPENT AT V.H.H.S.

MAY IT EVER KEEP ALIVE THE
GLOW OF LOVE FOR OUR SCHOOL AND THE WARMTH OF ITS MEMORIES.

Dedication

TO THE ONE HUNDRED AND TEN BOYS
IN SERVICE WHO HAVE ATTENDED V.H.H.S., WE, THE ANNUAL STAFF, RESPECTFULLY
DEDICATE THIS 1945 PANTHER.

WITH A SPECIAL REMEMBRANCE OF
THE THREE FORMER STUDENTS WHO HAVE PAID THE SUPREME SACRIFICE, MAY THE PANTHER SPIRIT PERMEATE ALL OF OUR SERVICE MEN.

"May we be granted the courage and patience to endure the things which cannot be changed;

"May we be endowed with the intelligence and vision to change the things that ought to be changed;

"Above all, may we be blessed with the wisdom to know the one from the other."

SENIOR PLAY

Title: "Ghost Wanted" (Produced by special arrangement with Row, Peterson & Company, New York.)

Author: Guernsey Le Pelley

Time: 1945

Place: A haunted house on Ramshead Rock on the Coast of Maine.

Atmosphere: Mystery and intrigue

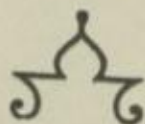

Before me was the sign "SEER - GREATEST OF FORTUNE TELLERS". Should I take advantage of this master-mind, enter into his magnetic presence, review the past, tremble for the present and wish for the future? Long had I waited for just such an opportunity - here was the golden hour at hand.

Without further ado I crossed the palm of the assistant of this prophet with the required amount of silver and entered into the weird black-draped room. Seated almost directly in line with the entrance was a strange creature of sallow mien. His jewel-bedecked turban glittered even as a rajah's. His robe of purple hung limply about his gaunt frame which reposed almost nonchalantly on satin cushions of somber color. He seemed not concerned with earthly things but held his gaze steadily into a crystal ball which his talon-fingers caressed again and again. Softly he spoke - -

"'Tis years, yes, years since friends did part and go their many ways. Today you seek, my friend, news of these friends. Give us the words, oh crystal ball, that I may in turn give them to this waiting one.

Ah! Here they are - -

Betty Bond.	The originator of the hall permit Now teaches Eskimos how to knit.
Katie Boothe:	Works away with might and main She's invented a coat that really sheds rain.
Elsa Coe:	This girl thinks there is nothing better Than to keep writing on a chain letter.
Ruth Courter:	This girl knew just what to say Holds boat races now on Chesapeake Bay.
Olive Fincher:	A little girl with a quiet air Now sells tickets for the county fair.
Martha Giddens:	Her future now is all in speech Teaching how to whisper, groan and screech.
Betty Graham:	A clubwoman now of fame is she Holding meetings in far Haiti.
Tommy Green:	A merchant man of fame is he He's now in China selling tea.
Grady Griffin:	This scholar has worked so long and so hard He's made an elastic gas ration card.
Boyrita Guffey:	The girl with a smile Now writes lyrics all the while.
Mildred Harding:	With a rub-a-dub and a rub-a-dub, She sails the seas in a moth-proof tub.
Richard Henry:	This youth was always a popular boy He's crooning the 'teen-age to new heights of joy.
Noma Hogan:	For sweetness this girl set the pace Last seen was on a cross-country race.
Billie Jackson:	Known throughout this broad land For speed of pen in her shorthand.
Troy Jenkins:	A radio gag man of indisputable fame; Is this young lad the one and the same?
Jack La Due:	His pictures are taken just for fun; He's won a place on the New York Sun.
Kelly McCann:	This lad made touchdowns galore He's still adding up to old Baylor's score.
Mary McFarland:	The nicest we think, Is now the manager of a roller-rink.
Billy Mead:	Always a lad of quiet mien He's Disney's sound man on a Hollywood screen.
Evangeline Mills:	A pedagogue in voice is she Training the lungs in do-re-mi.
Mary Mitchell:	When last this girl was seen She played boogie on a sewing machine.
June Morrison:	A very clever and friendly girl Spends time making curly hair uncurl.
Shirley Norvelle:	Known throughout for her gracious air She compounds perfumes very rare.
Jack Percy:	A cartoonist of very great skill: But he'll sell all his work for ONE dollar bill.

Doris Perkins: Always one of grace and ease
Now does stunts on a tricky trapeze.

Rose Renfrow: Of this girl the world will read soon
Racing skyward in a punctured ballon.

Maury Rolnick: A country gentleman now is he,
He numbers his ranches by the 1,2.3.

Gordon Smith: This lad wields no mean pen:
In newspaper work he's really "in."

Joe Snyder: This lad does the work of a full grown man;
He now is a hunter in Hindustan.

David Soelter: A deep sea diver beneath the wave;
His residence now is Neptune's cave.

Sammy Stanford: After riding his motor bike over hiway and lane;
He now zooms thru the clouds in a 3 motored plane.

Mary Stapper: Who is one for good looks
Is now in Afghasistan selling books.

Bob Sutton: No doubt you'll remember him, too;
He's now a dentist in Timbucktoo.

Catherine Ueckert: The class will always remember her, too
She teaches dancing in Kalamazoo.

Lupe Valle: Her tongue was so very nimble
She spends her time with needle and thimble.

Marilyn Warren: The girl with those dimples so rare
Tours the world in a rocking chair.

Marianna Waters: Of such a sweet and demure look
She can't find an ending for her book.

Suddenly the seer looked at me. His eyes glistened, his fingers pointed excitedly toward the ball. He urged me to look deep into its depths.

Out of the shining center there emerged the outlines of a building and surrounding grounds. Could it be old V.H.H.S.? Undoubtedly it was! There, resplendent in all its years of growth. Great wings of brick spread north and south. Neat walks laid in a landscaped and be-shrubbed lawn from paved parking spaces to an imposing entrance, to reveal quiet corridors, made so by "bootless" students treading on rubber composition. Over wide swinging doors dazzled the work "Auditorium". Shades of Shakespeare: a dream come true.

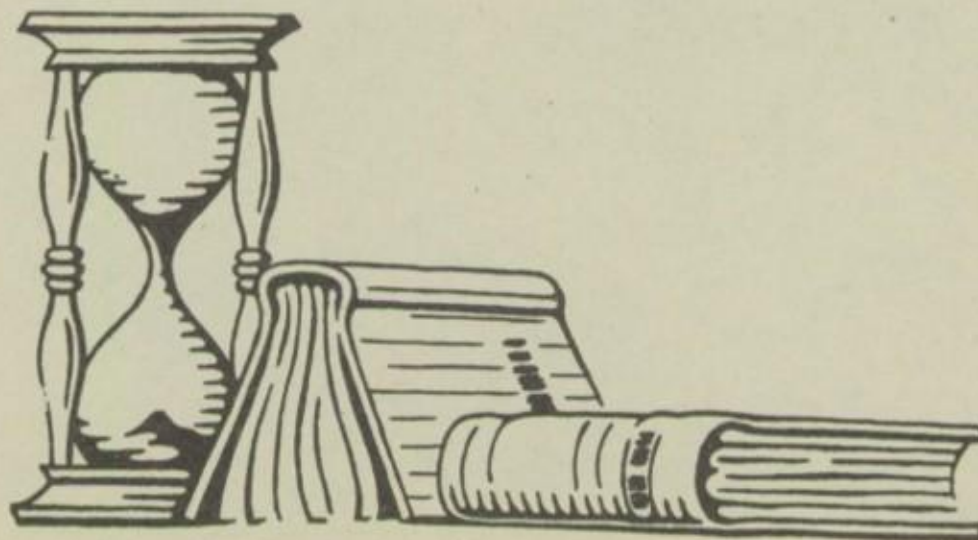

Quickly the scene shifted! Cheering was heard! Why and where? Through one of the unbreakable, post-war windows was caught a glimpse of the Athletic field. A football game was in full swing. The players fumbled, ran and made touchdowns in a blaze of light. The streamlined stadium held the riotous crowd. There was the P.T.A., though a bit undone by this time, in the grandstand section, and in the bleachers - Mitchell, Hood, Owens, Spruce, Bellows, Waters, Orr, Blankenship and Riddle, with voices feeble, yet determined, were led in yells by Boswell. Who was the lineman with the Cane? Searcy in person backing the hoary-haired Killough to the last inch of coaching.

This was too much! I arose and staggered from the presence of this prophetic personage resolved to take passage on the first glider to see this that had come to pass at V.H.H.S.

ABOUT THE JUNIORS

If you're thinkin' of havin' a hoe-down,
A frolic, or anything,
I can give you all of the low-down
On who's the best to bring.

'Course, there's some you may really think coo-coo--
But they're harmless, tho' not always quiet;
And the pair to beware of is Herman and Lulu---
They'll do their best to start a riot.

You can bring Georgie, (he's not like Georgie Porgie),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Dwight, (not out of mind tho' out of sight),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Charles, (at the girls he never snarls),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Dave, (a bone-creaking knave),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Jack, (he's got that certain knack),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Ewell, (for him the girls all drool),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Gee, (and sit upon his knee),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Gray, (when he should be at school, you'll find him at play),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
You can bring Eugene, (the joint he'll gladly clean),
BUT DON'T BRING HERMAN!
CAUSE HERMAN ALWAYS WANTS TO DO WHAT EMILY POST SAYS NOT TO DO!
And you can bring Norton, (now don't try any courtin'),
And Roy, (watch it--he's not really so coy),
And Royall, (flirt with "her" and watch him boil),
And Tuggle, ('course he might put up a struggle),
And there's Larry, (tho' you'd better be wary),
And Dan, (he'll do what he can),
And Howie, (quite a guy--zowie!),
And Bill, (casanova of every Lil on the hill),
And Bob W., (he won't try to cuddle you),
And Billy Warren, (he'll leave if the party gets borin'),
BUT PLEASE DON'T BRING THAT HERMAN!!

LULU -

You can bring Beard, (she's a little bit weird),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Nona B., (not lacking in personality),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Elizabeth B., (careful--she's quite shy, you see),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Ola Pearl, (a quiet, conservative sort of girl),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Mary, (this one's not contrary),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Miriam, (the girl with irium),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Clore, (of talents she has a good store),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Conder, (she's bound to make you wander),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Davis, (if all else fails, she'll save us),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Nell, (tho' she's not a deb or a belle),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!
You can bring Eidt, (a right pleasing sight),
BUT DON'T BRING LULU!

'CAUSE LULU'S FOOLISH DOINGS WOULD PUT A PARTY TO RUINS!
And you can bring Fredda. (even tho' she's going steadda),
And Harrell, (wi' the Scotties she seems to wear well),
And Hooker, (if you can book 'er),
And Hooten, (she'll come arootin' and atootin'),
And McBride, (she'll take you for a ride),
And Esther, (but please don't molest her),
And then there's Lila Rae, (she's not one to say "nay"),
And June, (not likely to spoon),
And Colleen, (she's sooner heard than seen),
And Annette, (but she's hard to get),
And Palmer, (if you'll be a little calmer),
And you can bring Peterson, (you really ought to meet her, son),
And Reneau, (but watch your beau),
And Ganelle, (we like her pretty well),
And Rhea, (who hasn't much to say),
And Vandiver, (we'll always like havin' her),
And Dolores R., (for a better friend you'd have to look far),
And Carla Ann, (she'll get her man),
BUT PLEASE DON'T BRING THAT LULU!!

To one of the ugliest girl stealers a guy
has had the ill fortune to meet.

David Bernardin

Mr. Bell

Mrs. Bell

Mrs. Abbott

Almost two hundred students enjoy the delicious food in this cafeteria daily. It is operated by Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Abbott, who are loved by all the students. As these ladies rule the cafeteria, so the custodian, Mr. Bell, keeps the building and campus. Almost every day we can see the improvements that he has made.

SPORT'S PAGE

- I. September 21, our Panthers met and defeated the Sunset "B" team 12 to 7.
- II. September 29, we were defeated 37 to 0 by the Forney "Jackrabbits" in our first Conference game.
- III. October 6, we lost to the Wilmer-Hutchin's Eagles, District Champs, 20 to 6 on the Panther gridiron. Although we were defeated, we gave the "Eagles" their strongest competition of the season.
- IV. October 13, we defeated the Texas Country Day "Broncs" by an overwhelming score of 26 to 7.
- V. October 20, we won our first conference game from Seagoville 12 to 0.
- VI. October 27, we lost a hard fought game to Ferris Yellow Jackets 26 to 6.
- VII. November 3, we beat the Pleasant Grove Bobcats 14 to 12. Since the Bobcats were in the Class "A" Division. Coach Killough was quite pleased with our victory.
- VIII. November 10, our Panthers played a good game but received many bad breaks and were defeated 26 to 14 by the Lancaster Tigers.
- IX. November 17, on a muddy field the Panthers defeated the Richardson Eagles for the first time in seven years by a score of 19 to 7.

To the Student Body and Faculty — We want to express our genuine gratitude for their whole-hearted support and cooperation.

To Our Advertisers — We want to say "thanks" for your splendid cooperation. Without your backing, this 1945 edition of our annual would not have been possible.

To Our Sponsor — Our sincerest appreciation for her unlimited patience and kindness at all times. Without it, none of our dreams for our annual would have come true.

These Three will be very dominant in the happy memories which will be recalled by us in later years as we turn through the pages of

To one of the silliest
but nicest lower class men I know.
Loads of Luck,
Gene Miller

"John Lynn"

Hi Gene looking!
Just kidding
Good Luck
Always! Elaine

W a hammy guy
who is a lot of fun
but who makes me
so mad I could shoot
him. You are so crazy that ~~no one~~ <sup>no one</sup> knows how crazy you really are I think no kidding
yours swell
and I ~~was~~ have known you
a long time
Lots of Luck
Always
Alvin
